

DEEPER WISDOM

FRIDAY MAY 11TH

6:00 pm

Doors Open – Meet and greet with light hors d'oeuvres served.

6:30 pm

What Dreams May Come – This half hour is an opportunity to discover unknown secrets of healing power, inner transformation, and dynamic interpersonal communication.

John Smeresky is a tireless researcher into the latest healing modalities for addressing the issues that we all carry. He is a mystic, a healer, a very handy electrical and technical problem solver. The list could go on, but come and experience John for yourself.

7:00 pm

Sustainable Spirituality – Got Spirituality? A discussion on the secrets of sustaining spiritual growth.

Ruth A. Johnson is an author and musician who is a lifetime spiritual seeker. Her studies include Unity, Kabbalah, Shamanism, Meditation, and Yoga. She is the co-author of Whole, written with Dr. Patti Townsend, a story about finding the “The Mother Within.”

7:30 pm

Miracles of Attitudinal Healing – Grasping the tools to shift our deepest held contexts takes us into miracles of forgiveness and self acceptance. Based on the work of Gerald Jampolsky

Gale Newton began spiritual studies as a young woman, studying at the feet of Margaret Drake Elliott, herbalist and author. She hails from a multi-generational family of sensitives/clairvoyants. She is a medical intuitive and has devoted herself to assist others reach their highest potential.

8:00 pm

Natures' Path to Awakening the Inner Child - How learning to let one's Inner Child play within nature can bring them closer to understanding the divine.

Autumn Tietsort is a native Muskegonite who has studied esoteric teachings throughout her adult life. She has a deep appreciation and connection with nature spirits and inter-dimensional creatures.

8:30 pm

The Paranormal and Spirituality - A discussion to explore just how normal is the paranormal, and how does it contribute to our spiritual development.

James Day is a design engineer, a prize winning artist of woodworking and a seer of extraordinary gifts.

SATURDAY MAY 12TH

10:00 am

Food and Fellowship – start your day with coffee and reflect on the previous day's learning.

10:30 am

Serving Others – with her extensive knowledge of oriental healing techniques, the meridians, acupuncture points, & other extraordinary information, Cathy will share how she uses all these practices to serve the needs of people and all living things.

Cathy Caldwell Bowman is a massage therapist, a joyful spirit, and maker of the best pies imaginable. Wherever people need a shot of beauty and uplifting, she tends to appear.

11:00 am

Science and Spirituality – A round table discussion opportunity to learn through simple explanation, question and answer from this very clear mind.

Craig Davis is a self-educated expert on matters of cosmology and quantum science.

11:30 am

Essential Oils – Naomi uses Young Living brand oils. In this session you can learn more about what oils can do for you.

Naomi Hennes is a lifelong student of spiritual metaphysics and has discovered the healing power of essential oils. Her knowledge in the use of them grows continually and she is anxious to share with others.

12:00 pm

Break – brief break for lunch.

12:30 pm

Journaling for Self-Healing – This session invites you to get to know yourself at new levels of experience and feeling.

Gail Peters is a deeply sensitive soul who delves into self-discovery with journaling. Her flair for decorating and accessorizing keeps our surroundings touched with imagination.

1:00 pm

Indigenous Insights: Walking a Mystical Path with Practical Shoes – Linda invites you, through symbol and the four-fold way, to assess where your focus should be for optimal well-being in the coming year, Psycho-Spiritual fun.

Linda Margaret Ritz White is a Director for 3R Education and founder of Six Crows Alliance for the Pursuit of Arcane Wisdom and Understanding. She is drawn to Kabbalistic, Hermetic, and Native American Wisdom paths. Linda always likes to make her presentations experiential. Expect to be moving, learning by doing, and discovering new experiences.

2:00 pm

The Tree of Life and Other Things – will give us a chance to sit with Barb and let her tell us her latest findings on the spiritual path.

Barb Olsen is a professional midwife, counselor, and spiritual mentor. Her steady hand and wise perspective overflows into new insights for mothers, wives, sweethearts, husbands, fathers, daughters, and sons.

